The University of Delaware Alfred Lerner College of Business & Economics has unanimously voted Brighton Cromwell President/CEO Rob Van Etten to the Alumni Board of Directors. He has been tasked with helping build the school new entrepreneurship program and to help Delaware become a top business program. “I am very proud to serve the University of Delaware Alfred Lerner College of Business & Economics. Much of what I learned at the University of Delaware I applied in the course of starting and running Brighton Cromwell”—states Rob Van Etten.
